

Requests for reservations must be accepted during normal business hours on a “next day” basis (not 24 hours in advance) on all days prior to days of service (e.g., weekends, holidays). Reservations for next day service must be taken during administrative office hours. Reservations can be accepted using mechanical means (e.g., answering machines).

Please ensure all documents and websites reflect this change.